As One Door Closes...

December is your last chance to board the Starship OPM for your nonstop, warp-speed flight through the universe featuring some of the best in-flight entertainment in the galaxy. The final flight is set for New Year's Eve, and they're going out with a bang. Individual and group packages are available including tickets to OPM (two showtimes available), a four-course prix fixe dinner at Superfrico, a specialty New Year's Eve celebratory cocktail, and all the Spiegelworld surprises.

Two More Open...

On-Strip the long-awaited (18 years to be exact) Fontainebleau Las Vegas has set its opening date for Dec. 13 and is situated on Las Vegas Blvd. adjacent to LVCC's West Hall and upcoming expansion.

Off-Strip, Station Casinos will open Durango Casino & Resort on Dec. 5. Located just off the 215 and Durango, visitors to Spring Mountain National Recreation Area will have a new option for a pit stop to rest their head for the night.

Sip Cocoa with Camels and Santa

Camel Safari Las Vegas is hosting a WILD Christmas experience on Dec. 22 and 23. This family-friendly event in Bunkerville, just a few minutes from Mesquite, offers a photo opportunity with Santa and a camel, ticket to ride on the safari tram to view the animals that call Camel Safari home, petting zoo, make your own ornament and cozy campfire to snuggle up with a cup of hot chocolate! There are only 150 slots available per day, so book your tickets now!

Add This to Your "Free Thing to do In Las Vegas" List

Miracle Mile Shops inside Planet Hollywood Resort & Casino has announced a free 3D projection video show entitled The Lost City Show. Running every day from 10 p.m. – 11 p.m. on the hour, the show is now live for visitors to enjoy. Using projection mapping technology, which allows projections to envelop any surface and create a surreal effect, visitors can watch fire, water, ice, earth and wind dance across the stone facade of V Theater and the surrounding cityscape. We hear an upgrade to their iconic Rain Show is coming up next... stay tuned!

Dashing Through the Glow

No holiday visit to Las Vegas would be complete without visiting Glittering Lights at the Las Vegas Motor Speedway, a dazzling 2.5-mile immersive drive-through course of over 5 million lights. Don't want to drive? Park your car and cozy up on a ride on the outdoor open-air Santa Tram! Perfect for groups of all sizes and ages, you can also meet Santa, play games, have hot cocoa & kettle corn, and more. New to the Santa scene this year is Rockin' Christmas at M Resort. Drive through a mile of life-sized musical notes, retro Santas and more in the world's largest animated drive-through light show!

No car? no problem. Level up the festivities by booking a party bus with Discreet Transportation. They'll dash you and your group from one end of the city to the other to enjoy both these attractions. Or deck your 'gram and let Photo Tours Vegas be your gram-worthy holiday hotspots.

Snowflakes & Spotlights - Special Holiday Shows

Mama's Wranglers, Henderson's country jewel at the Firelight Barn perform their holiday spectacular Redneck Reindeer beginning Thanksgiving weekend and running through the end of the year.

Marriage Can be Murder, an interactive murder mystery dinner show, will be performing its special holiday show, A Very Merry Murder from November 28 - January 2. In addition to group rates or renting out the entire show, you can also book a private show that includes customizable elements to your industry... aka, the secretary or Joe from accounting did it (or maybe they were in on it together!).

Mesquite Community Theater will host a trio of holiday shows including "Rock'n Sing-A-Long Christmas" on Dec. 2, Mesquite Toes Dance Troops "A Merry & Bright Christmas" on Dec. 8 and 9, and "December Delights" on Dec. 16.

Tournament of Kings 'Twas the Knight makes its return to Excalibur Hotel & Casino Nov. 22 - Dec. 25, continuing the popular holiday tradition. The Tournament of Kings Arena magically transforms into a winter wonderland, guaranteeing all a 'holly jolly' time during this limited engagement.

Places to Sip & Sleigh the Night Away

There's no shortage of delightful holiday cocktails to enjoy, but we've rounded up just a handful of what we think are some of the best in town.

Now - Dec. 31 The Sand Dollar Downtown at Plaza Hotel & Casino transforms into "Sippin' Santa on Main", a festive tiki cocktail pop-up. Think "What does Santa do in his off-time?" From floor-to-ceiling and all the F&B in between, expect island Christmas vibes where board shorts and Santa hats collide.

On Dec. 1 Circa Las Vegas kicks off the holidays with a one-night-only Jingle Bell Ball that is guaranteed to be the swankiest event of the season. Toast to the holidays with good friends, good cheer, good bites, and an open bar including unlimited beer, wine, call spirits, and select festive specialty cocktails.

After you're done "hitting the slopes" with The Cosmopolitan's popular roof-top Ice Rink, make your way to The Ski Lodge... if you can find it. The unmarked high-altitude speakeasy requires a little bit of insider info to find, but we're pretty sure the folks at Indigo Tickets can help you out. Inspired by the world's coziest apres-ski bars, this is one funky winter lodge you can experience year round.

Dash Away, Dash Away

For those who revel in active outdoor adventures a few events are taking place...

Mesquite Athletics And Leisure Services is hosting its annual Jingle Bell Dash 5K & Fun Run on Dec. 2. Also, don't miss out on The Las Vegas Great Santa Run happening in Downtown Las Vegas on Dec. 2.

Off-road race enthusiasts, more than 400 racers will gather for SNORE presents McKenzie's Rage at the River on Dec. 8-10. The event centers around two days of desert off-road racing, featuring seven heats for Stock Full, Stock Bug, and Trophy Lite. Preceding the racing action on Friday are the Fun Run and Tech/Contingency Row events. Or you can skip the race and take your own off-road adventure with SunBuggy Fun Rentals & Tours, where kids under age 14 ride free in December!

Discover LAS VEGAS TERRITORY

WHAT IS LAS VEGAS TERRITORY?

Las Vegas Territory is a membership-based, non-profit organization established in 1984 by the Nevada Commission on Tourism and the support of the Las Vegas Convention and Visitors Authority (LVCVA). The purpose of the organization is to increase the number of first-time and returning visitors by creating an awareness of the outlying tourism entities, cultural activities, special events, scenic attractions, and the recreation and historical areas of Clark County, Nevada. What's New Las Vegas Territory is underwritten by a Travel Nevada grant. Visit Travel Nevada for more ideas and roadtrips.

WHERE IS LAS VEGAS TERRITORY?

Las Vegas Territory encompasses the southern region of the Silver State, and includes Boulder City, Downtown Las Vegas, Goodsprings, Henderson, Las Vegas, Laughlin, Jean, Mesquite, Moapa Valley, and Primm – and all of the cool places in between.

Mesquite is known for its eight championship golf courses and plenty of UTV trails. Its close proximity to southern Utah's National Parks makes it a great base camp to unpack your bags for overnight.

Moapa Valley features more than 200 mi. of recreational trails in the Logandale Trail System and is the perfect place to stay while exploring Valley of Fire and Gold Butte National Monument.

Boulder City was originally built to house workers of the nearby Boulder Dam (later renamed Hoover Dam). Small town life is well-preserved in this quaint town featuring museums, antiques and dining.

Laughlin is located along the picturesque Colorado River where guests can enjoy water attractions, hiking, labyrinths, strolling the Riverwalk, golf, gaming, amazing accommodations, dining, entertainment, and other outdoor activities.

Primm/Goodsprings/Jean are a collection of small towns close to southern Nevada's border. Originally a hot spot for mining, today they serve as a popular rest stop between Las Vegas and California.

Henderson is the second largest city in Nevada. With miles of walking and biking trails, a bird preserve, and Lake Las Vegas, the city prides itself on small town values with big city efficiencies.

Downtown Las Vegas is where the neon lights of Las Vegas got their start. In the past decade the area has undergone a renaissance with the growth of The Arts District and Fremont East areas.
