Planning for the Big Day?

You may be planning a more budget conscious wedding or event and the value in investing in a few hours with a professional to get you started may be all you need. Or you may have hit a road block in your current plans and need some redirection. LV Wedding Connection offers anything from assistance with finding qualified wedding professionals, ceremony concerns, family issues, etiquette questions or design ideas. We handle all aspects of weddings with all of the amenities needed such as romantic chapels, unique venues, formal wear, transportation, photography, videography, hair and makeup stylists.

LV Wedding Connection can connect you to all of the amenities for that very special day. A one stop shop for you. The wedding and event industry is a huge part of tourism and we take a lot of pride in representing this very emotional industry. Every "Special Event" is truly an irreplaceable occasion for someone. We have many years of experience and we understand the importance of each and every client.
